The News.

It is denied that there is to be any change in Cabinet at Washington.

General Paez leaves New York to-day for Venezuela, and is to be escorted to the steamer by a division of Militia.

A full embassy from Japan, it is said, will be in Washington May or June next.

Montgomery and a band of desperadoes are committing depredations in Kansas, and the people are arming for protection. Advices have been received at Washington to this effect.

We have later advices from New Mexico and various items of news from all directions by telegraph.

There is to be a special election in the Sixth District in Illinois, Jan. 4th, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. T. L. Harris.

Flour was firmer and 5 to 10 cents better in the New York market yesterday, while wheat was dull unchanged. There was no important change in our market with the exception of a slight advance on dressed hogs.

We had quite a sprinkling of snow last evening, with indications of a regular storm.

Another "Newhall House" Meeting.

Some sixty, or eighty gentlemen from different parts of the State, many of them prominently connected with one, or other of our Wisconsin Railroads, held an adjourned meeting, at the Newhall House, Wednesday evening, to talk over the State Assumption Scheme. The official proceedings, with the names of those who assented to the resolutions adopted, will be found elsewhere. It will be seen that the meeting "dropped" the scheme heretofore proposed, and resolved,

1st. That the various Railroad bonds, mortgages, &c., ought to be paid.

2d, That it is impossible for the different cities, towns and farm mortgagors to pay these debts now.

3d, That they have full confidence, in such contingency, that the People will authorize the interposition of the State credit, in aid of the aforesaid cities, towns, &c.

4th, That this is in no sense a political question and ought not to be so treated by the Press.

5th, That a memorial be drawn up and circulated among the People, praying the Legislature to submit the necessary alterations of the Constitution to the popular vote.

We cordially assent to the first and fourth propositions, which are identical with those we have advanced in the Sentinel. The second is measurably true. We question the correctness of the belief expressed in the fourth, but we certainly have no objection to the step proposed in the fifth. On the whole the last meeting was a decided improvement on the first.

Another Blast from Old Berks!

When, among other incidents of the October election in Pennsylvania, it was announced that old Berks County, from time immemorial the Gibraltar of Democracy, had elected the Opposition candidate for Congress over J. Glancy Jones, the regular Democratic nominee, the political quidnuncs, all over the country, stood aghast and confounded. The thing seemed incredible. It was, indeed, a political miracle.—Mr. Jones himself was promptly cared for by that good Samaritan, President Buchanan, who made him Minister to Austria. Disgusted with Berks County, and anxious to enter upon his Diplomatic career, Jones resigned the unexpired portion of his Congressional term. A new election was accordingly ordered for the 30th ult.—The "regular Democracy" nominated Col. Wanner, law partner of Jones. The Opposition united upon Gen. Wm. H. Keim. The election came off on Tuesday, and where Jones was beaten sixteen votes, his partner, Wanner, is beaten four hundred! Old Berks is actually turning "Black Republican!"

There is a rumor that immediately on hearing of Mr. Wanner's defeat, the sympathizing President, who believes so devoutly in "Popular Sovereignty," and pays such entire deference to the public will; appointed the defeated candidate as Minister to Japan.

Reserve of Breadstuffs in France.—The Paris Constitutional asserts that it is the intention of the Imperial government to establish a Corn Reserve. The present low price of cereals is said to be the immediate moving cause, though the project has long been contemplated by Louis Napoleon. A step towards the movement has already been made in Paris and the department of the Seine. The eleven hundred bakers of that department are bound to have in store, four enough for three months' consumption. The quantity amounts to 358,880 sacks, or 565,571 quintals (a material quintal is 221½ lbs English.) Of this the bakers keep a seventh at their own residences, and the rest is either stored in Government warehouses, or at private warehouses that contract for storing it and keeping it in good order.

This system, or something analagous, it is proposed to enforce in towns having not less than 10,000 inhabitants, of which there are in France 150, according to the census of 1856. The cost of three months' provisions for those towns would not, it is stated, require an advance of more than 31,000,000 or 32,000,000 francs.—Taking the present price of a hectolitre of wheat at 14 francs, it is calculated that the cost of warehousing, insurance, interest and attention, need not enhance that figure beyond 16f. 28c. at the end of three years, while the last scarcity brought the prices up to 80f. Supposing the reserve to be kept in flour instead of wheat, the estimated cost at the end of three years would be 51f. 15c. the sack, while the price was, not long ago, at 100f. and beyond. It must be recollected that in calculating interest, warehouse room, &c., it is not supposed that the total of the reserve is to be stored in the first year, but that the operation will be spread over the three years, according to plenty and price.

The practical effect of this scheme, the Constitutional says, will be to stop the fall of prices now, and thus protect the Agricultural interest, while in seasons of scarcity it will prevent the increase of rates, by drawing upon the reserve, that would be ruinous to the poor.

Tender-Hearted.—President Buchanan is, after all, says the Washington correspondent of the New York Times, a man of the tenderest sympathies. He assigns as his reason for changing the sentence of the Court-Martial dismissing Commander Boutwell from the Navy, that the Commander was afflicted with dyspepsia, which must have, in some measure, impaired his mental powers, or he would never have been guilty of the offences of which he was convicted by the Court.

State Assumption Meeting.

At an adjourned meeting of citizens of different parts of the State, held at the Newhall House, on the 1st inst., the President, Wm. C. Allen, of Walworth, called the meeting to order.

The Secretary being absent, on motion John S. Rockwell was appointed Secretary.

L. W. Weeks, from the committee appointed at the former meeting, reported the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the public debts of the cities, towns and counties, and farm mortgages incurred in behalf of the various Railroads of the State, whether issued with sufficient legal authority or not, ought to be paid; that the withering blight of repudiation must never darken the fair name of Wisconsin; that we owe it to ourselves and our children to see to it that no such infamy be written in our history.

Resolved, That, in our opinion, it is impossible for the cities, towns and counties, and farm mortgagors, at the present time, to meet these liabilities unexpectedly precipitated upon them. And in this emergency they have no alternative but to appeal to the State at large, as the only power able to interfere and protect them from dishonor.

Resolved, That we have full faith that the People of the State, when made fully acquainted with the emergencies that are upon us for liabilities incurred for the common benefit, will not hesitate to authorize such interposition of the State credit as will enable these farm mortgagors, cities, towns and counties to preserve their credit and liquidate their liabilities gradually, and in such a manner as to avert the ruin that now threatens them.

Resolved, That it is in no sense a political question, and ought not in any way to be treated as such by the Press of the State; but rather a question of public policy; whether State interference at the present may not only avert threatened calamities of the most alarming character, but secure to the State a speedy re action from the present depression, and thus infuse new life and hope among our people, thereby adding millions to the wealth of the State, by the onward progress that would be sure to follow such a return of credit.

Resolved, That a memorial to the Legislature be circulated among the people for signatures, asking that measures be taken to submit such alterations in the Constitution as are necessary to enable the State to grant such relief as may be deemed just and proper.

Mr. Grant moved to strike out all but the last resolution, which, after considerable discussion, was lost.

On motion of Mr. A. E. Ray, the resolutions were then unanimously adopted.

L. W. Weeks, from the same committee, then presented the following memorial:

MEMORIAL.

To the Senate and Assembly of the State of Wisconsin, in Legislature assembled:

The memorial of the undersigned, citizens of Wisconsin, would respectfully represent that in years past, many of the citizens of the State have been induced to mortgage their homesteads in the aid of the various Railroads then constructing; and in like manner many of the cities, towns and counties have, in pursuance of various laws of the State, issued municipal bonds and loaned the same to these Roads, they undertaking to protect and pay the interest accruing on the same. That the citizens and municipalities were moved thereto by the pressing necessity for these improvements, so important and indispensable for the development of the resources of the State, and from the inability of these great enterprises to make progress without such aid, and especially as the State could not render assistance on account of Constitutional prohibitions.

And further, your memorialists would respectfully represent that, reposing full faith that said Roads would be able to protect and pay in pursuance of their agreements, the interest accruing on said mortgages and bonds, they have been issued in amounts vastly beyond the ability of the people to make good, should it be required of them immediately, as it is apparent it must be, from the Financial condition of the Roads, resulting from the depression of business and partial failure of the crops.

In such event your memorialists desire to make appeal to the Commonwealth at large, who have reaped the benefits resulting from these great improvements equally with the individuals and municipalities who perfied their homes and faith in their construction.

Your memorialists further represent that without assistance from the Commonwealth, by the interposition of the State credit, so as to reduce the high rate of interest now accruing, and afford time for the ultimate redemption of these debts, there is believed to be no escape from the disgrace and dishonor of practical repudiation. Without such aid, it must result as the inevitable necessity,

Your memorialists therefore pray, that the necessary measures be taken to submit to the people of the State such alterations in the Constitution as will permit the desired relief, should they in their wisdom deem it proper and expedient; and your memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

On motion of Mr. Mark the memorial was unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. H. S. Durand, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed by this meeting, of gentlemen not connected with the management of any railroad, for the purpose of maturing a plan for carrying out the object under consideration, and that said committee report at a future meeting to be held at an early day.

On motion of Mr. Mark it was voted that the newspapers of the State be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

On motion of Stoddard Judd it was ordered that an Executive Committee be appointed by the Chair.

The Chair appointed the following gentlemen said committee:

L W Weeks,	W A Prentise,
Cicero Comstock,	Marshal M Strong,
John G Ibbusch,	J A Bingham,
D A J Upham.

On motion it was ordered that the gentlemen present be requested to sign the proceedings of this meeting.

WM. C. ALLEN, President.

JOHN S. ROCKWELL, Secretary.

Peoria Election—Republican Victory.—The Republicans of Peoria won a brilliant victory over the Douglasites on Monday last. The Democratic "rolling stock" having done their errand on the 2d of Nov. had returned whence they came. And notwithstanding the Douglasites had a majority of 800 in Peoria four weeks ago, the Republicans believed that there was a majority of legal voters in the city.

Each side nominated their strongest men and put forth their utmost exertions. The Danites ran no ticket, but voted for the ticket labeled "Democratic." Now mark the result.

Dr. Hamilton, the Republican candidate for Mayor, has a majority of 252 votes over John Waugh, Douglasite. The vote cast was: Hamilton 1,038 Waugh 787. The Republican vote at the State election was about 950.

The Republican majority on Clerk is 221.—The Republicans also elected their candidates for City Attorney, Treasurer, Collector, both magistrates, both constables and three of the six aldermen.—Chicago Tribune, Dec. 2.

Dr. Barnard.—This distinguished gentleman has accepted the agency of the Board of Regents of the Normal School of Wisconsin. This is decidedly a good move for the cause of education in that prosperous and public-spirited young commonwealth.—Detroit Tribune.

A Golden Wedding.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

The golden wedding of Jacob and Dorothy Kling was celebrated in Troy, Walworth County, Wis., Nov. 27, 1858, by six out of twelve of the family; the remaining six residing in New York State—all of the living and all married. There are twenty-three grandchildren living, ten of whom were present, five only, of so large a family have died. There are probably but few families where all are living at so old an age, the youngest in her 26th year; Father being, on the 27th, 78 years 11 months; Mother, 65 years 6 months 19 days. There are nine sons and three daughters. A very pleasant part of the evening was spent by presents to the parents in the substantials of life. The old gentleman was young again, and related some of his adventures in early life and even challenged a leap, hop, or jump, with any of his boys. His teeth are entirely sound, and double, never being injured by the use of tobacco or spiritous liquors, and always being an early riser and of steady habits, has added much to his present hale, and hearty health. As for mother, she has been all that the name of mother could mean. Although having the care of a large family she never forgot to give them that moral instruction, so necessary to the formation of a good character. There is Daguerreotype of eight out of the nine boys with their wives, on one plate—a present sent from New York, some 4 or 5 years ago. The entire family has never been together, at one time, tho' an effort was made some years ago, when all but one were at home. Yours, &c.,

One of the Family.

For Grand Haven—The steamer Gazelle leaves Johnson & Olmsted's dock every evening, (Sundays excepted,) at 8 o'clock, for Grand Haven, connecting with the Detroit & Milwaukee Railway for the East.

Propellers.

For Buffalo.—A line of propellers run to and from Buffalo, one of which leaves this city daily.

For Ogdensburgh.—A tri-weekly line of propellers also run to Ogdensburgh.

Griffix & Bradley, at the foot of East Water street, are the Ticket Agents for both of these propeller lines.

For Collingwood.—A tri-weekly line of propellers run to Collingwood, stopping at intermediate ports, and leaving this city on Sunday, Wednesday and Friday of each week. L. D. Jerome, Agent.

New Publications.

The Home Monthly.—This is the name of a new periodical, the first number of which is before us. It is edited by Mrs. H. E. G. Arey, and Mrs. O. H. Gildensleeve, both of whom are already known to the public through their literary works. The "Home Monthly," as its name implies, is a household magazine, designed especially for the home circle. The present number contains a variety of entertaining reading matter, and amongst the editorials are many valuable hints towards domestic economy and improvement. Amongst its contributors are some of the best female writers in the country, and the editors give assurances that it is their intention to render their magazine a domestic journal of the most unexceptional character. Typographically, it is well gotten up, and each number will be accompanied by a handsome engraving. It is published by Arey & Gildensleeve, No. 224 Main street, Buffalo.

The Edinburgh Review.—We have L. Scott & Co.'s publication of the Edinburgh Review for October, with contents as follows:

Memoirs of the Court of England during the Regency, 1811—1829.
Report of the trial of Madeline Smith at Edinburgh, June, 1857.
History of Ancient Pottery.
M. Guizot's Historical Memoirs.
Contributions to the Philosophy of Vision.
The Earls of Kildare and their Ancestors.
Studies of Homer and the Homeric age.
Guy Livingston or Thorough.
The London Cotton Plant.
The Edinburgh Review, and Mr. Froude's History.

Mr. Scott also sends us Blackwood for November, with the following table of contents:

Buckle's History of Civilization.
"What will he do with it? Part 18.
Edward Irving.
The Light on the Hearth? Part 3.
Oberbourg—the Port and Fortress.
Lord Canning's reply to the Ellenborough despatch.

Now is the season to subscribe for these admirable periodicals. Address Leonard Scott & Co., 79 Fulton street, New York.

Sergeant-at-Arms for the Assembly.—We observe that Mr. Marcus Otterbourg is a German Republican candidate for the office of Sergeant-at-Arms in the Assembly. His petition is signed by Gregor Mezsel, Ch. Preusser, B. Domschke, Joseph Ody, G. Preusser, Carl Schurz, and numerous other prominent Republicans of his countrymen. They testify that he is a staunch Republican and zealous laborer for the party, and with such names he surely presents himself with the strongest kind of claims for the appointment.—Wisconsin.

We copy the above from the Wisconsin for the sake of saying that Mr. Otterbourg has always been a working Republican, and that his appointment would give great satisfaction to his German fellow-citizens. We gladly recommend his application to the favorable consideration of our Republican friends in the Legislature.

Oshkosh Commercial Bank.—We notice that Thomas T. Reeve, Esq., formerly cashier of the Bank of Orange county, at Goshen, N. Y., and Mr. G. W. Roe, formerly teller in the Chester Bank, Orange county N. Y., have purchased the stock in the Oshkosh Commercial Bank, and are now the officers of it. Mr. Reeve, the President, and Mr. Roe, the Cashier. We have known Mr. Reeve long and well, and can assure our Wisconsin readers that his integrity and skill as a banker are only equalled by his urbanity and high social qualities as a man. Under his management the bank will be sure of continued prosperity.—Chicago Press and Tribune.

Messrs. Reeve & Roe have been engaged in the banking and brokerage business in our city for something better than a year and a half, and from a personal acquaintance with both of them we can endorse all the Press & Tribune says of the former, and say the same of the latter.—Under their guidance the Commercial Bank cannot fail to prosper.

A Disappointment.—It appears now that John P. Hale is not to lecture here at all. The Secretary of the Young Men's Association has received a letter from him, dated at Elgin, Ill., 28th ult., in which he expresses great regret and mortification at his failure to meet his engagement here, and attributes it to having been misinformed as to the time it would take him to reach Milwaukee. The first lecture, therefore, before the Association will be delivered by Hon. Carl Schurz, of Watertown, on the 10th inst. An interesting discourse may be expected.

"Church and Minister Puffing."—An article under this head appeared in the local columns of the Sentinel, yesterday, which, had it met the Editor's eye, would certainly have been refused publication. The tone was objectionable and the allusions to one or two of the leading churches and a prominent and estimable clergyman in this city, were both unjust and uncalled for.

More "Weather."—We had another instalment, yesterday, of cloudy skies, Easterly wind and damp snow. The temperature was so moderate that though the snow fell fast, it melted almost as fast as it fell.

Bailey's New Picture Gallery.—Yesterday we paid a visit to the picture gallery of Mr. W. F. Bailey, at 117 East Water street, formerly kept by Mr. C. M. Seeley, and spent a few moments to a good advantage in examining some of his beautiful pictures. Mr. Bailey, the present proprietor of the establishment, is one of the best artists in the western country. He is the originator of a new style of taking likenesses, which far surpasses, in accuracy and beauty, anything else of the kind that we have yet seen. The process is entirely original with himself, and from its astonishing simplicity must come into general use. He has not given it any particular name, but we believe it is his intention to apply for a patent for the invention. It is somewhat similar to the photographic method, save that pictures are taken on glass, and are, in every respect, equal to the finest oil paintings.

Mr. Bailey has taken a number of pictures by this process which may be seen in his show case at the entrance to the Arcade Building.—They will be found well worth an examination.—Mr. Bailey also takes Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, Photographs and all other kinds of pictures at prices ranging from two shillings to twenty dollars or more. We can recommend all who may want a good picture to Bailey's Gallery.

Personal.—Mr. Thomas O'Flaherty requests us to say, that the Thomas Flaherty, whose name appears in the Common Council proceedings, published in yesterday morning's issue, as having been absolved from a fine of $15 and costs, imposed upon him by the Police Justice, is not Thomas O'Flaherty, ex-constable; that he has always been a quiet and law abiding citizen, and never was arraigned before a Police Court; that although the one name has the O' before it and the other has not, still many of his friends thinks it means him. This we trust will set the matter all right.—News.

As the same name appeared in our report of the Common Council proceedings, in justice to Mr. O'Flaherty, whom we have long known to to be an industrious and peaceable citizen, we take pleasure in publishing the above explanation.

Information Wanted.—Thomas Hand left his home about the 15th of September last. He was seen in Beaver Dam the same day, since which time his friends can't get any trace of him. He is a person of weak mind, and incapable of taking care of himself. He had on, when he left home, a brown felt hat, a dark home-spun coat and blue-mixed pants. In person, he was about six feet tall, with black hair, black whiskers and blue eyes. He has a large scar, caused by a burn, on his right cheek. Any information concerning him, would be gratefully received by his aged mother, at Rolling Prairie Post Office, Dodge Co., Wis., in care of Ralph Phillips.

Rolling Prairie, Dec. 1st, 1858.

A Disappointment.—It appears now that John P. Hale is not to lecture here at all. The Secretary of the Young Men's Association has received a letter from him, dated at Elgin, Ill., 28th ult., in which he expresses great regret and mortification at his failure to meet his engagement here, and attributes it to having been misinformed as to the time it would take him to reach Milwaukee. The first lecture, therefore, before the Association will be delivered by Hon. Carl Schurz, of Watertown, on the 10th inst. An interesting discourse may be expected.

"Church and Minister Puffing."—An article under this head appeared in the local columns of the Sentinel, yesterday, which, had it met the Editor's eye, would certainly have been refused publication. The tone was objectionable and the allusions to one or two of the leading churches and a prominent and estimable clergyman in this city, were both unjust and uncalled for.

More "Weather."—We had another instalment, yesterday, of cloudy skies, Easterly wind and damp snow. The temperature was so moderate that though the snow fell fast, it melted almost as fast as it fell.

FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 3.

The Indiana Senators.

The News occupies nearly two columns with an argument of its own and Senator Toombs', to prove that the recent action of the Indiana Legislature, declaring the election of Messrs. Bright and Fitch, as U. S. Senators from that State, to have been illegal, fraudulent and void, was not authorized by the facts and is contrary to law.—We are surprised to see so doughty a champion of "Popular Sovereignty" and such a scrupulous respecter of the right of each State to manage its own concerns, as the News affects to be, undertaking to school Indiana, upon a point of such immediate interest to her as the selection of her Senators in Congress. The Legislature which has just pronounced upon this question comes fresh from the People; having been chosen in October last; and the action to be taken in regard to these bogus Senators, was discussed very fully during the canvass. It cannot be doubted, therefore, that the People of Indiana, as well as the Legislature of that State, look upon the pretended election of Messrs. Bright and Fitch, nearly two years ago, as a fraud, and intend to appeal to the U. S. Senate for redress in the premises. We shall then see how much sincerity there is in the affected regard of the Sham Democracy for State Rights and Popular Sovereignty.

Our City Bonds.—The News still professes to be incredulous about our City's paying principal and interest of its Rail Road bonds, and in reply to our expressed opinion that they will be paid, says:

If they must be, they will be; but it remains to be determined whether they must be or not, and in the meantime, we do not believe that the people of this city are hankering much after the privilege of paying the annual interest on $1,500,000 of bonds issued to build railroads, for the benefit of Chicago, or that they will come forward very cheerfully in 1860 to pay a quarter of a million of those bonds which become due at that time.

We do not know that there is any very strong "hankering" after this "privilege," and it will probably astonish most people to learn that our Railroads have all been built solely "for the benefit of Chicago." If they are managed "for the benefit of Chicago," that is another matter, and does not, certainly, constitute a very strong argument why our State should assume their debts.

A Thorough-Partisan.—The latest progressive dogma of the Slave-Democracy finds a fit exponent in the person of Congressman Hughes. This gentleman is none of your foggy politicians. You can always gather just what he means from what he says. In his late speech at Indianapolis, a few days since, he said: "I say to you to night, that if the constitution of the United States gives to the slaveholder the right to hold his slaves in the territories, (as Mr. Hughes claims the Supreme Court has decided he has,) that right is perfect in the Territory and needs no territorial legislation to make it so. I am for the Constitution with all consequences immediate and remote, and if that Constitution imposes manacles upon every negro of the nation I am for it still." This is unadulterated Democracy of the genuine Buchanan stamp.

Senator Doolittle.—This gentleman left for Washington on Monday last, in order to be at his post at the opening of Congress on the 6th inst. Mr. Doolittle, as well as Mr. Potter, go with the kindest wishes of a very large majority of the people of this State; that they will not their part faithfully, fearlessly and ably, we believe, not only in resisting the encroachments of the slave power, but in the defence of those important rights which are ours, commercially and otherwise, in the "free" northwest.—Racine Advocate.

Mr. Billinghurst is also on his way to Washington, having passed through our city Tuesday. He has quite recovered from the severe attack of illness which prostrated him just after election, and is in good health and spirits.

Non-Interference.—The Indianapolis correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial represents the attempted interference of Mr. Douglas in the Senatorial question of that State, as meeting the severest reprobation of even his best friends. The writer says:

The attempt of the Chicago Times to influence the action of the anti-Lecompton Democrats in reference to the election of Senators, is scorned at even by the best friends of Mr. Douglas.—They consider the Senatorial question as one that involves the rights of the sovereign State of Indiana, and declare it presumptuous on the part of outsiders to endeavor to forestall their action in the premises. They hold that consistency requires the exponent of Popular Sovereignty, to let the people of Indiana regulate their domestic affairs in their own way.

Chinese Sugar Cane.—We are indebted to the Hon. W. C. Allen, of Walworth County, for a very superior sample of Molasses, or Syrup, made by him from Chinese Sugar Cane raised this year, upon his fine farm in the beautiful town of Sharon. The Syrup very closely resembles Maple Syrup in color and taste, and is much better than most of the Molasses usually sold. Mr. Allen informed us that he raised the Cane with no more trouble and at less expense than corn; that it is very productive; and that the syrup can be easily expressed and clarified. He estimates the yield per acre as equal to two hundred gallons of molasses, and informs us that the culture is rapidly spreading among the farmers of Walworth. Mr. Allen adds that there is an element in the syrup, which, if not removed, leaves a disagreeable taste. In raising his syrup he used nothing but skim milk, which he found entirely effectual.

"The Dignity of Labor."—The News of yesterday indulges in another fling at "the dignity of Labor" and quotes a "fellow down East," as authority on the subject. Anonymous authority is, no doubt, the best that can be found for such enlightened opinions as the News has put forth on this subject.

Value of Foreign Journals in New York.—The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, writing about the journals of the metropolis published in the German and French languages, says the Courrier des Etats Unis, (French,) is very successful, and that the profits of the Staats Zeitung (German) are not less than $50,000 a year. The latter is owned by a lady, who is desirous of selling at $130,000.

Failure of Hamburg Insurance Companies.—In consequence of recent severe losses by the burning of the steamer Austria, the loss of the steamer Hudson, and other marine disasters, the Hammonia Life Insurance Company of Hamburg has declared itself insolvent before the usual court, with liabilities for 86,200 marks banco for policies already fallen due, and 15,900 for current policies in Hamburg, and 1,700,000 to persons insured residing abroad. The Maritime Assurance Company of the same city is also about to wind up its affairs.

The Skating Epidemic.—Young and middle aged in New York have heard with emotions bordering on ecstacy, of the fine skating ground which is to be provided for them on Central Park; the commissioners furnishing the water and zero the freeze. In Buffalo, some gentlemen residing on Delaware avenue hired the vacant lots on the corner of Virginia street, which have a area of fifty-two thousand square feet, which they propose to fence in and floor with ice.

St. Croix Assembly District.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Hudson, Nov. 26, 1858

Messrs. Editors:—The returns from LaPointe County were not in at the canvass for this Assembly District. This left Moses S. Gibson, the Republican candidate, some 25 majority, allowing his opponent, McCracken, the incorrect return from Polk County and 20 imperfect votes in St. Croix County. In La Pointe County, it is said, as many Indians were allowed to vote as wished to, and a fictitious majority thus made up for McCracken. The Board of Canvassers, upon the returns before them, gave the certificate of election to Mr. Gibson and he will take his seat; his opponent, Mr. McCracken, having the right, of course, to contest the seat.

St. Croix.

A Singular Accident.—The Detroit Free Press contains the particulars of a very singular accident which occurred in that city a few days since. A man employed in a pottery had the entire upper part of his head cut away by the revolving knives used in cutting and pulverizing the clay, and in this way lived three days, and retained his senses. The Press thus describes the wound:

"At the time of the accident, Dr. Zina Pitcher was called in, who dressed the wound as well as the circumstances would admit. The parietal bone, which had been carried entirely away, had been crushed to atoms in the machinery, and, of course, could not be replaced. The dura mater, or membrane that encloses the brain, had also been torn off, and several ounces of the brain itself were gone. In this horribly mutilated and wounded condition the man was able to walk and converse, and his senses were unimpaired. We stated in our former article that the man lived a half a day; we now learn that he lived three days.

We are informed by the physician who attended him, that, in dressing the wound, he took occasion to finger the brain, and that while so doing the man was insensible to pain, there being apparently no feeling in it, but that upon touching the dura mater the man instantly expressed the most acute sensitiveness. Had this membrane been uninjured he would probably have survived the accident.

Chancellor Barnard.—Very general satisfaction is expressed by the newspapers in our own and adjoining States at Mr. Barnard's acceptance of the Chancellorship of the Wisconsin State University. The Chicago Tribune says:

The election of the Hon. Henry Barnard to the Chancellorship of the University of Wisconsin, and his acceptance to the office, are events which will have an important bearing upon the educational interests of our neighboring State.—In Connecticut, where Mr. Barnard resides, and in all New England, he is regarded as the foremost man of the nation in whatever concerns the management of institutions of learning and the scholastic teachings of the young. His identification with a new and vigorous institution, founded by a people earnest and active in educational matters, cannot be without happy results. The West will give Mr. Barnard a warm welcome.

Shipments of Grain by Dutton & Raymonds.—This long standing and enterprising firm o grain dealers have done a handsome business for the last season, considering the times. If the weather had been good this fall their shipments would have amounted to half a million bushels at the lowest figure. This includes from the opening to the close of navigation:

To Buffalo, wheat,	47,368
do barley,	22,150
To Dunkirk, wheat,	10,138
Thro' Welland Canal, wheat,	227,643
" " " oats,	42,552
Total,	349,521

—Racine Daily News, Dec. 1.

Will our friend of the Racine Daily News give us the entire shipments from that port for the season, as compared with previous years?

Rail Road to St. Paul.

La Crosse, Nov. 29, 1858.

Editor of Republican:—A few days since, I heard one of your citizens urging the propriety of awakening up the people to the subject of building a Railroad from La Crosse to St. Paul, and as near as I can recollect, the following were prominent among features of his project.

DISTANCE.

1st. The distance on the line of the River, East bank, would be, not exceeding 130 miles.

GRADES.

Next, the grade would in no one place, exceed ten feet to the mile, and not over two miles of that grade, made up of detached pieces; much of the grade only that of the river fall, very small portions four or six feet with no deep cuts or heavy embankments.

COST.

The Road built and equipped will not exceed $17,000 per mile.

FACILITIES FOR BUILDING.

All the material, wood, stone, gravel, immediately upon the line, being a saving of cartage.

FREE FROM IMPEDIMENTS.

Always free from drifting snows, the source of so much loss in running trains in the high open country in all the North-West three or four months of the year. The Bluffs shelter the valley from this obstacle.

IT WILL PAY.

The Road following the great channel of trade established on either side of the river by steamboat commerce, is a guarantee that it will exceed in amount of business, any road yet projected in the North West, over thirty towns and cities having already grown into such business note, as to be the regular steamboat landings, as outlets of the back country, where millions of dollars worth of merchandize are annually deposited. Add to this, says he, the fact that as all the pine lumber on the great tributaries of the Mississippi flow west to that river for an outlet, and market, so must the business connected therewith flow in the same direction.

Now, Mr. Editor, how would this affect other roads? The La Crosse and Milwaukee for instance. Would it not bring a large amount of business upon that Road, to pass over its entire length, and give that road the complete control of the Upper Mississippi.

Will it not give Trempealeau, Winona, Fountain City, Reed's Landing, Red Wing, Hastings, Prescott, and Point Douglas, as well as St. Paul, just the outlet they are all wanting?

Will it not be the very means of building twenty or thirty cities in this valley, and mark it as the most beautiful, as well as grandest thoroughfare in America?

What says Milwaukee? C.

Louis Napoleon Repudiating the African Slave Trade.—The Moniteur publishes the following letter, which the Emperor has addressed to Prince Napoleon, Minister of Algeria and the Colonies:

St. Cloud, Oct. 30, 1858.

"My dear Cousin:—I have the liveliest desire that, at the moment when the difference with Portugal relative to the Charles et Georges, has terminated, the question of the engagement of free laborers on the African Coast should be definitely examined and finally settled on the truest principles of humanity and justice.

I energetically claimed from Portugal the restitution of the Charles et Georges, because I will always maintain intact the independence of the national flag; but, in this case even, it was only with the profound conviction of my right that I risked with the King of Portugal a rupture of those friendly relations which I am glad to maintain with him; but as to the principles of the engagement of the negroes, my ideas are far from being settled. If, in truth, laborers recruited on the African coast are not allowed the exercise of their free will, and if this enrollment is only the Slave trade in disguise, I will have it on no terms, for it is not I who will protect anywhere enterprises contrary to progress, to humanity, and to civilization. I beg you, then, to look out the truth with the zeal and intelligence which you will bring to bear on all affairs about which you employ yourself. And, as the best method of putting an end to what is a continual cause of dispute, would be to substitute the labor of Indian coolies for that of the negroes. I will beg you to come to an understanding with the Minister of Foreign Affairs to resume with the English Government the negotiations which were entered on a few months ago. On this, my dear cousin, I pray God to have you in his holy keeping. Napoleon.

Man Buried in a Well at a Depth of Thirty-two Feet—Miraculous Escape.—The Medina (Orleans Co.) Tribune of last week says that a few days since Mr. Calvin Wheeler, who resides ten miles south of that village, was at the bottom of a well thirty-two feet in depth engaged in cleaning it out, when the walls of stone fell with a sudden crash, burying the unfortunate man at the bottom. With scarcely a hope of rescuing Mr. W. alive, some fifteen men set themselves to work to remove the stones. After four hours hard labor they were almost startled to hear beneath them the voice of their buried neighbor. Their exertions were redoubled and an hour later Mr. Wheeler was rescued from his premature entombment uninjured! By a miracle the stones, before reaching the bottom of the well, formed an arch so complete as to bear a burden of several tons. And thus was Mr. W. saved from a sudden and terrible death.

The Homicide at Port Huron

We have learned some additional facts relative to the unfortunate shooting of Capt. Jones, of the brig Concord, by U. S. Marshal Tyler, yesterday morning.

The collision for which she was libeled, and under which libel an attempt was being made to serve process, occurred nearly a month ago on Lake Superior. Both vessels repaired there, and the Concord loaded with iron at Marquette, to be taken to Cleveland where she was owned. She had a very stormy passage down, being delayed by heavy gales, and arrived at Port Sarnia on Thursday or Friday last.

Meantime her owners had been notified of the suit against them for damages, and were anxious to get the vessel and cargo to Cleveland, where the latter could be disposed of, and the former could be attached and tried in the U. S. Court in that city, instead of subjecting them to the trouble and expense of a trial in this city. The owners of the Gen. Taylor were equally solicitous that the brig should be attached and brought to this city for trial, thus saving them the trouble and expense of a trial in Cleveland. The libel was accordingly filed and the writs issued, and of this fact the brig's owners were aware. Two U. S. Deputy Marshals at St Clair and Port Huron had been notified that the brig was daily expected, and had been instructed to take her if she came within their lawful reach, and had been on the watch for a week or more

Some persons connected with the owners of the brig had also proceeded to Port Huron to notify the Captain of the impending process and to instruct him to keep in British waters. Accordingly when the brig came to anchor, she lay in the stream close to the Canadian shore, and in order to meet the full requirements of the law and be beyond the reach of process as an American vessel, lines were carried out from the brig and fastened to stakes upon the shore. This placed the vessel completely without the jurisdiction of the U. S. authorities, while a simple anchoring even in Canada waters would not, under the construction which has been put upon the U. S. law by the Courts.

On Saturday Captain Jones came down to Windsor and was again told that process was out for him and he must be careful. He then told Capt. Chilvers, of the Gem, that his vessel lay in British waters, and that no officer would come on board; that if any one made the attempt he would split his head open or shoot him. He then hired a tug and started for Port Huron, intending to bring his vessel down on Sunday, when the writs could not be served.—The tug, however, got aground, and he did not reach his vessel till too late to carry out his intention.

Under these circumstances Mr. Tyler started for Port Huron on Saturday, in the tug Cliff Boldon. The tug Elliott (we believe) before they got there had gone alongside the brig to see if she wanted to be to be towed down, and was informed that they did not want a tug, and warned them to keep off the vessel. Yesterday morning at 1 o'clock the Marshal ran alongside, having previously sent a man to cut the lines which were fastened to the shore. It is stated that only one was cut, so that the brig was connected to the shore by the other. The mate saw the tug coming up and told the Captain, who said that he didn't want any tug and if the attempted to get out lines and fasten to him he should cut them, and took the axe and went on deck with the mate. The tug was hailed, and replied that they wanted to get out a line and lie alongside. This the Captain forbade, telling them that he would cut the ropes if they did.

As this colloquy ended, Deputy Marshal Tyler leaped upon the rail of the brig, holding on to the rigging with one hand and announced his office and business. The Captain replied, "I am moored to the Canada shore—I forbid you to touch the vessel." The statement as to what followed are conflicting. The Marshal's party say the Captain said "Come on, Bill; I'm ready for you—I'll split you open," at the same time holding the uplifted axe as if to strike. This the mate and other men in the brig deny and say that the axe was in his hand and hanging loosely by his side. The facts can only be determined by further investigation.

Mr. Tyler has been committed to jail to await examination before a United States Commissioner, which is set down for Dec. 10th. He has always proved himself an unusually competent officer, we are informed by the authorities, being very efficient in serving process upon vessels, being on the alert at all hours of the day and night, so much so as to excite the enmity of many of the sailors who have, time and again threatened to kill him.

Capt. Jones was a general favorite among all those who knew him. He undoubtedly believed himself to be without the United States jurisdiction, and perfectly justified in repelling any attempts to board his vessel, whether by officers or otherwise. His age was 32. He leaves a wife and one child, who live nine miles out on the Grand River road, and to whom the terrible news was broken yesterday afternoon. They came in last evening.

The funeral will take place to-morrow forenoon at 10 o'clock from the residence of Captain Stanton, on the corner of Park and Sibley streets. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

An extra from the office of the Port Huron Press has reached us just now at 8 P. M, and we have only time to state that a Coroner's inquest was held at Port Huron yesterday. The testimony before the Coroner, we shall present on another occasion. It differs materially from the statements already published by us in that none of the witnesses swear that Capt. Jones offered to strike Tyler with the axe, but on the contrary, Quinton Morgan, the mate, and John Nicolls, who took Capt. Jones from China to his vessel at Port Sarnia, testify, that Capt. Jones only spoke of using the axe to cut away the rope, if one should be attached to his vessel by the tug containing Tyler. They also swear that the Marshal showed no process, and that he drew his pistol, as soon as he boarded Capt. Jones' vessel.

The following is the verdict of the coroner's jury:

State of Michigan, } ss.
County of St. Clair, }

An inquisition taken at Port Huron, in said county, on the twenty-ninth day of November, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, before John McNeil, one of the Justices of the Peace of the said county, upon the view of the body of Henry L. Jones, there lying dead, by the oaths of the jurors whose names are hereto subscribed, who being sworn to enquire in behalf of the People of this State, when, in what manner, and by what means the said Henry L. Jones came to his death, upon their oaths do say, that he came to his death at Point Edwards, Canada West, by means of a shot from a pistol in the hands of Wm. Tyler, of the city of Detroit, of the county of Wayne, in said State.

In testimony whereof, the said Justice of the Peace and the Jurors of this inquest have hereunto set their hands the day and year aforesaid. John McNeil, Justice of the Peace,

C. K. Forbes,
Michael McAbeon,
Asa Larned,
William Kerwin,
Henry Wilcox,
J. M. Mason,
} Jurors.

There is much excitement in relation to this sad affair both at Port Huron and Port Sarnia.

We understand that some Canadian officers came down on the boat to-day, but for what we did not learn, so they can have no requisition under the Ashburton Treaty, if they had, it is doubtful whether it could be served under the peculiar circumstances of the case.—Detroit Tribune, Nov. 30.

Anecdote of Prof. Morse.—Lieut. Maury, during the delivery of his lecture on the Atlantic Telegraph, at Cleveland, Thursday night, related the following anecdote of Prof. Morse, while engaged in perfecting his first telegraph line, between Washington and Baltimore. The report is from the Herald:

Mr. Morse's first idea was to lay his wire under ground, and accordingly he had built a heavy plow to make the furrow. Mr. M., as he proceeded, encountered insuperable difficulties relative to the insulation of the wires. He found he must abandon the underground plan and put the wires on poles. But whatexcuse should be given for the stoppage of his present work until he could set the poles and string the wires?—Without some excuse he feared an entire withdrawal of confidence and of the Congressional appropriations. He told his dilemma to his ploughman, who was shrewd and quick-witted. Says the ploughman, "Dr., you see that stump right in our path?" "Yes!" "Well, Dr., if this plow, drawn by this strong team, comes in contact with that stump, it is a used up plow, and the work must stop until the plow is repaired." "Go ahead," said Dr. Morse.—The team did go ahead and plow was used up on the stump, and the work of laying the wire under ground had to stop until the plow could be mended—and the plow is not repaired yet.

New Theatre in Cincinnati.—A splendid theatre is being erected in Cincinnati. The front is the finest in town; of drab sand stone, highly ornamented with "heads," &c., in alto relievo. The facade is surmounted by a representation of the Muses. The theatre itself is very large, and it is to be finished in a style superior to any. It will seat 3,500 persons and will cost $400,000.

Death of an Ex-Congressman.—Hon. Jonathan Knight, an ex-member of Congress, died in Washington county, Pa., on Monday last.—He was an eminent civil engineer, and served the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad in that capacity for a considerable time. He was in the 70th year of his age.

The Assumption Scheme.

To the People of Wisconsin:—In my former letter, I alluded to the provisions of our State Constitution, under which speculators in legislative integrity have never been able to saddle you with a lawful debt exceeding $160,000 in amount. That this was so, the immortal "Forty" have always regarded as a "muckle pity"; and I allude to no particular forty, for we have had many forties, and no sooner does one become extinct than their souls by some sort of transmigration, reappearin other bodies, exhibiting all the Shylish propensities of the forties that preceded them, and illustrating Mr. Beecher's idea of the origin of Sin—they had it before. The $100,000 limitation, reduced as it always is, by extraordinary expenditures by the State, has left a field for their operations by no means commensurate with their necessities and financial skill. For some years past they have been preying upon the counties, towns and cities, and every Grizzle Greenhorn that came in their way, until they have exhausted the resources, and credit of all who have opened their doors to them; and now they are about to lay before you "the reason and necessity for some relief in the premises to be granted by the State."

The "relief" which they so much need and are about to ask, is that you, the dear people, assume all their debts and lay no claim to the property for which they have been contracted, if any such exists, and pay them all, whether they were contracted for consideration or not.

Do you ask who these gentlemen are that are so much in need of relief? Their names do not appear; they are too modest to ask charity in their own proper names, and in the bestowment of it, they mean you shall not on the Scripture principle and not let your left hand know what your right hand doeth; so when your left hands ask the impertinent question, tell them it is a "Committee." If they ask by whom the committee was appointed and under whose authority they are to act, tell them it was not a committee at all, but a "Convention." If they ask when and how that convention was called and who selected the delegates, tell them that is not for the left hands to know. It is only permitted unto them to know that they will be called upon to assume.

"1st. Farm mortgages given to Railroad Companies.

"2d. City bonds issued to aid in the construction of Railroads.

"3d. Town, village and county bonds issued for the same purpose;" and that "petitions will be circulated, praying the legislature to take the necessary steps to submit an amendment to the Constitution to a vote of the electors of the State," &c.

It is presumed, dear people, that you are not only able and willing, but even anxious to pay the debts of railroad operators; so anxious that you will petition the legislature to grant you the inestimable privilege of doing so; and as you cannot do it otherwise, it is presumed that you will take the trouble and risk of amending your State Constitution to enable you to carry out your benevolent designs toward railroad operators and stock-jobbers.

There is something so whimsical in the idea of people petitioning the legislature for the privilege of paying the debts of railroad companies, after and because their managers have stolen them all blind, and to help out the speculations of Wall Street brokers, whose stocks have depreciated in consequence—I say there is something so whimsical about the operation, when most people find it so difficult to pay their own debts, that I am curious to see some member of this sub rosa committee of that under-ground convention try it on me, especially as I have lately provided myself with a good heavy pair of boots and have no corns on my great toes.

The amount of debts you propose to pay for other people, if the legislature will be kind enough to let you, is highly honorable to your resources as well as to your generosity. There is only six millions or seven, or seven and a quarter, that you know of, and the interest you propose to pay will amount to only $300,000 or $350,000 a year for thirty years. This is nothing compared with what you can; and why just show yourselves anxious to do this much, allow me to say, it is nothing compared with what you will be called upon to do. H.

Beckwith's Holland Bitters.—See what the dealers, men who sell anything in their line, and who are not interested in the medicine more than any other say:—

"We think highly of your article, and expect it to have a large sale." BARNES & PARK, New York.

The demand is greatly increasing.

T. W. DYOTT & SON, Philadelphia.

Most medicines require time to introduce them; yours sells at the start. HOFFMAN & MORWITZ, Philadelphia.

We have been selling Beckwith's Holland Bitters for some months; and, although, when it was first introduced we did not urge its sale, being unacquainted with the article; still we found the public determined to have it, and to meet the demand we have been obliged to purchase more of this article than we ever have of any other patent medicine we sell. Every day brings new testimonials of its efficacy in removing the various complaints for which it is recommended, and in offering it to our customers, we do so with more confidence in its virtues than is due to most preparations of the kind.

A Capital Story.

Correspondence of the Boston Traveler.

RUE DE LA CHAUSSE D'ANFINI,
PARIS, Sept. 26, '58.

The law providing against the usurpation of titles of nobility is really causing a good deal of inconvenience, especially in provincial France. No license to shoot game, no passport is issued until the claimant proves his alleged title, even though it be no more than the aristocratic particle de. And no person is allowed to "witness" a marriage record, or a certificate of birth or death, unless he establishes a right to the name used. This new law has dislocated society in the provinces a good deal, and made a good many marriages miscarry. I have heard some interesting stories in illustration of the effects of this craving after titles; and you must let me tell you one which contains in its few sentences an outline of the incidents of a three volume novel. They say it is true. I cannot avouch its reality, nor do I see how this point can become a matter of any importance, for it is no creed I send you, but only the amusement of an idle hour. Nobody pins their faith upon a story—and there are some men who cannot be brought to build their faith, even ondecrees of councils and bulls of Popes.

A few years ago a young Frenchman took it into his head to visit Germany. He was possessed of no fortune, and was a man of plebian birth. But he had one of the most aristocratic names of France, humble as his family was,—no wonderful coincidence to any body who has passed away some hours of a rainy day in the hotel of a strange city, listlessly turning over the leaves of a Directory. How many Howards are cobblers; Tudors, blacksmiths; Egertons, grocers: Percys, tailors; Douglases, pastry cooks! And being in love with a German barroness, who feels (as all the German nobility feel,) and as felt her ancestors, of whom you remember Chesterfield said, "they would rather prove their two-and-thirty quarters than two-and-thirty cardinal virtues, if there were so many." They are not of Ulysses' opinion who says, very truly—

"—— Genus et proavos, et quæ non fecimus ipsi, Vix ea nostra voco."

I say being in love with a German barroness, who feels that untitled men are as zeros in life, he dubbed himself a baron, that he might be on an equality of condition with the lady he loved. He visited the town where she lived, determined to stay there until his purse was exhausted.

His name, his title, pleasing person, winning manners and talents, made it an easy thing for him to enter society. One day, in a fashionable drawing room, an elderly gentleman came up to him with extended hands and said. "We are kinsmen, Baron." The young man blushed, and so great was his embarrassment and surprise, that he remained speechless. His silence was taken for pride, and the old man added, smiling, "Don't be afraid I shall prove unworthy of the house. I am Count Von——. My mother (who was of French extraction) bore your name, and was consequently of your family, for there never has been but one family of that name in France. I know it has been said to be extinct, but I have always heard my aunts say they were members of it still surviving in the province you come from. You are proof they were not mistaken.

The young Frenchman, confused and annoyed by an incident which threw him into a false and grave position, tried in vain to end the cordiality of the old man. His efforts were all in vain. Delighted to discover a relation who reflected so much honor to the family, the old gentleman introduced him everywhere. The most exclusive drawing-room, of the town, threw open their doors to him, presented under such favorable auspices. In one of these houses the pseudo-nobleman became acquainted with a charming girl—a lady who possessed all those spells which bind man; she had beauty, birth and fortune. The Count Von—— used all of his diplomacy to procure an alliance between his "French kinsman" and the German heiress; and he succeeded so far as the lady was concerned, but the Frenchman declined the offer, being determined, so he said, never to marry a woman of superior fortune to his own "My dear fellow," was instantly the reply of the old Count, "do you think I would have nothing to give you on your marriage? I am an old bachelor. You are the only kinsman I have in the world. I would have it a point of honor to give you as much fortune as this young lady will receive on her marriage."

The Frenchman persisted in his refusal and told the generous old Count that he was not certain of being entitled to the rank of Baron—that his certificate of birth, as well as his father's, bore his name without any "de" or title. Bah! Bah! Bah! Don't you see how it is! Why, my dear boy, your father was born during the first Republic (that sanguinary saturnalia which injured you French so much in Europe) when all titles were suppressed. Your family, like so many others, was injured by the storm, and it is your duty to repair it. Marry the bride I offer you; she is the daughter of my best friend; and when I die, all I have is yours." In vain the young man struggled against the Count's resolution; he could make no impression on the latter. The young lady herself spoke to him one evening at a ball: "I know, sir, the reason why you refuse to accept your relation's proffered kindness. You deem fortune itself would be too dearly purchased if we are burdened—with—me. Accept the fortune, and marry some other person more favored than me. I will use all my influence to engage your kinsmen to ratify your choice. Or, if you prefer the charms of single life, pretend to be anxious to marry me; to give you pleasure, I'll silence my heart, and refuse you."

The young Frenchman loved the lady, and this evidence of her affection for him increased his love to phrenzy. But his honor forced him to reject all these offers—made not to him, but to the bearer of the title he had assumed. He fled the town, and returned to Paris almost broken hearted.

This story not only illustrates the dangers of the prevalent weakness of titles, but it would make a good figure in a new edition of Mrs. Opie's White Lies.

The Confessions of a Nurse.

"I'm dying, doctor—I feel it. You're sure I am dying, sint you?" interrupted she, changing her solemn tones for very shrill ones, "you're quite sure."

"We are sure of nothing," said I, gravely, "you are very seriously ill."

"O no, I," exclaimed she, butterly relapsing into her melancholy phase again, "that is what all you doctors say; but it means death. Oh, sir, I have been a very, very wicked woman, indeed. I have something—I have three things on my mind which will do me good, I think, to get disburdened of; they will kill me else, I fell, of their own selves. And, sir, I have not got a soul in the world to tell them too, only you."

So this dreadful old person had, indeed, dragged me out of my warm bed for the purpose of reposing in me a dangerous confidence, which my own good nature lavited,

"Do you remember the very stout gentleman, doctor—him with the applopiexy in ward No. 2, at St. Barnabusses?"

"446. Flourisy. Left convalescent?" inquired I, from memory.

"The same, sir. I bled him to death, doctor, at his own house within the week. His friends paid me by the job, you see, and I was anxious to get it over."

"Good heavens!" cried I, "and to save yourself a little trouble, you committed, then, a cruel murder?"

"He went off like a lamb," cried the wretched creature, apologetically. "But there's worse than that. I once gave a young gentleman four doses of laudanum in one, and you wouldn't a known when he was dead from when he slept—known when he was murders for all that I know."

But them was murders for all that I know."

"They certainly were, miserable woman!" cried I, indignantly. "Have you anything yet more upon your mind?"

"Hush!" whispered she, pointing towards the door; she's listening; they always does it, bless you—I knows 'em so well. Once, only once, as I'm a sinful woman, I smothered a sick man with his pillow; that was for his money; he would have died any way, because he had the lockjaw. Now," added she, with a long-drawn sigh, and after a pause, "I feel somehow better and more comfortable like—thanks to you, sir."

The patient had sunk back from her sitting posture, as if exhausted with this terrible narration; but I read in her yet anxious eyes that she had still something more to say. Presently she again broke silence, and this time the emphasis with which she spoke was mingled with a tone of gratitude. She desired to recompense me, I suppose, for my prompt attention and interest, and delivered herself of this advice instead of a fee: "When your time comes, doctor, and your friends send for the nurse, don't let them pay her by the job."

A CARD TO THE "LADIES."
Dr. Duponco's Golden Periodical Pills,
FOR FEMALES.

The combination of ingredients in Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills are perfectly harmless. They have been used in the private practice of old Dr. Duponco for over thirty years, and thousands of ladies can testify to their great and never failing success in almost every case, in correcting irregularities, relieving painful and distressing menstruation, particularly at the change of life. From five to ten pills will cure that common, yet dreadful complaint, the Whites. Nearly every lady in the land suffers from that complaint. The above pill has permanently cured thousands, and will cure you if you use them. They cannot harm you, on the contrary they remove all obstructions, restore nature to its proper channel, and invigorate the whole system. Ladies, whose health will not permit an increase of Family, will find these pills a successful preventative. Pregnant females or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health—otherwise these pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box. Price $1 per Box.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS! MOTHERS!
DON'T FAIL to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. It has no equal on earth. It greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never-failing success in millions of cases.

We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arise from teething or from any other cause.

If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well-tried remedy.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New-York, is on the outside wrapper.

TO THE PUBLIC.

In answer to the numerous letters addressed to me on the subject of the Mustang Liniment, I would say that I have had no connection with that article for several years. It was invented by me, and while out up under my control it was universally used and highly prized by the public, as the best liniment in the world. In 1854 I sold out my interest in it to other parties, and since that time it has passed through the hands of several persons, each of whom have more or less counterfeited it, manufactured it of inferior and cheaper articles, and thus to entirely destroy its value as a medical remedy, trusting for success in selling to its former highly established reputation. In a private conversation I have so far as to substitute other articles in its composition for those in the original prescription, so that the Mustang Liniment now vended possesses no one of the distinguishing characteristics of the genuine article, as it was originally invented and manufactured by me. These parties, to enable themselves with more facility to foist their worthless stuff upon the public, have called it by my name as the sponsor, calling it "Bragg's" Mustang Liniment, and cautioning the public to beware of any other Bragg's Liniment as an imposition. This is done with a view of exciting a prejudice against BRAGG'S ARCTIC LINIMENT, an article more recently invented by me, and possessing all the virtues of the original Mustang, with some improvements—the result of experience and long observation—and manufactured by Bragg & Burrows, which firm is composed of my son, Oliver T. Bragg, and Michael Burrows. This article is superior in many respects to the Mustang, when it was put up precisely as I used to put it up, and is immeasurably superior to the article now vended as the Mustang Liniment. It is also the only liniment manufactured to which my name is appended by my authority or consent. In conclusion, I cannot hold myself responsible for any of the evil results of using the Mustang Liniment now vended, and especially after this public disclaimer of any connection with its proprietorship or manufacture.

R. R. R.

Mrs. A. E. Lewis Bond, a young married lady, and her little daughter, on their return to the city from a visit to an unhealthy district, was taken down with Fever and Ague. She took large doses of Quinine, Sulphate of Mendereri, Chicagogue, &c., but no relief was obtained. Every day at 11 A. M., the chills would come on, and continue till 2 P. M., then fever would set in and continue until 9 P. M., when the sweating would commence, and last until 3 A. M. Her physician gave her up. The young lady being one of our acquaintances, we requested her to try our R. R. R. Before she had taken, arms, feet, and the palms of her hands, were well rubbed, and in a few minutes she was free from the chills. Three of Radway's Regulators were given; in six hours they operated—since which time she has had no return of the Fever and Ague. One bottle of Rad way's Ready Relief, and three of his Regulators were given the little girl, and the same treatment with the Relief. She has not had a return of Chills since the second day of R. R. treatment.

R. R. R. is sold by C. HARRINGTON, Hogwoode & Son, L. F. Lake, and J. H. Tesch, Milwaukee, and by Druggists everywhere. nov29d&w2w

DR. KNAPP,
Recently of N. Y., may be consulted at his Room, No. 6, Walker House, Milwaukee, the first week in every month, commencing Nov. 1, in regard to all diseases, which he treats with unprecedented success. He cures chronic diseases of the throat, lungs and heart, pronounced incurable by the Medical Faculty generally, such as Nervous and Neuralgic Affections, Diseases of Women, all forms of Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Constipation Skin Diseases, Gonorrœa and Syphilis, Tetter, Ringworm, Scalding Urinary Consumption, Rheumatism, Paralysis, Epilepsy, Vomiting and Intermittent Fevers, the diseases of Children, &c. All the perils and most of the sufferings of childbirth are remedied by early consultation.

Remember, that the Doctor does not promise to cure all stages of Diseases. While ALL diseases are curable, if taken in season, all stages are not. Your case may be curable this week, not next—to-day, not to-morrow, hence the danger of delay.

The Doctor will be at his Rooms from Monday, Nov. 29th, to Saturday night, Dec. 4th. Consultation free. sept8 d&w1d&tsly

GRAIN CLEANER & SEPARATOR
HORTON'S PATENT
G. B. BINGHAM & BRO.,
Sole Manufacturers in Wisconsin.

THIS MACHINE is of recent invention, and surpasses all others in use for its perfections as a thorough Separator and Scourer. It has given entire satisfaction in New York, Pennsylvania and other States where it has been introduced, and we are confident it is better adapted to the cleaning of Western grain than any other ever introduced into this State. It is fire proof, other ever introduced into this State. It is fire proof, requires but little power to run it, and the cleaning cylinder so constructed as to render it unnecessary to be renewed for years. We respectfully invite all Western Millers to give us a call, and examine our machine, at the Bay State Foundry, Florida st., Milwaukee, Wis. fab10 f85d1y

MONEY MATTERS.—Currency still continues close, and Bank discounts are obtainable upon first class business paper at the usual rate. The present condition of money matters affords an opportunity for outside operations, and we hear of transactions on the street and amongst brokers at rates ranging from 1½ to 3 per cent per month. Exchange is quite plenty and is selling by the Banks at 1 per cent; though outside parties find it difficult to dispose of at ½ per cent premium. This is the current rate at Chicago.

COMMERCIAL.—There was very little animation in the wheat market to-day, and scarcely any change in prices; with the exception of extra spring for milling purposes which exhibit rather a downward tendency, none but the choicest samples bringing outside of 80c. The demand for No. 1 was not active, but yesterday's prices were generally maintained. Some bids were made for flour, but we hear of no important transactions. Choice brands of spring wheat flour are held at $4,12½. Corn is quite dull and rather lower. The best offers we heard of today were 46c for now shelled sample lots. Dealers ask 50c, however, but no sales are reported to-day.

The supply of pork is increasing, and the market a shade higher for heavy hogs. Provisions remain firm with rather an improving tendency.

The following are the principal receipts by Railroad to-day:

ICE IN THE WELLAND CANAL.—The Buffalo Express of Tuesday says:

The schooner, H. C. Winslow, bound from Chicago for Oswego with a cargo of 14,000 bush. wheat, arrived here Sunday night. On arriving at the mouth of the Welland Canal, Capt. Hurlburt found the ice so formidable that he headed his vessel for this port, where she will discharge her cargo. There are several other vessels now on their way to the lower lakes, who will have to follow the example set by the Winslow.

AGROUND.—Our Detroit exchanges say the schooner Traveller is hard aground at Grassy Island, light. The steamer Pearl has gone to her assistance.

RICHARDSON'S IRISH LINENS!

Damasks, Diapers, &c.

CONSUMERS of Richardson's Linens, and those desirous of obtaining the Genuine Goods, should see that the wrappers they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the goods.

Richardson, Sons & Owden,

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season, and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable, while purchasers can be imposed upon with Goods of a worthless character. PITTSBURG, FT. WAYNE & CHICAGO RAILROAD!

TRAINS leave and Direct Route now open to New York, Boston, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington as follows, viz: Mail, Lightning Express, Express, Fast Line and all Eastern Cities, Cincinnati, Columbus, Logansport, Springfield, Urbana, Zanesville, Steubenville, Newark and Wheeling, and all intermediate towns of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey, &c., making one grand unbroken Railroad line between

CHICAGO AND THE EAST.

FARE AS LOW AS ANY OTHER ROUTE.

Passengers wishing to go by this desirable and pleasant route, should be particular and ask for Tickets by Fort Wayne, avoiding the annoyance of re-checking baggage as by other Routes.

Trains leave Depot on VAN BUREN ST., daily as follows:

6:00 A. M. 5.45 P. M.

With but one change of cars to Pittsburgh.

Through Tickets to PHILADELPHIA, BALTIMORE and WASHINGTON, via Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York. Connecting directly with trains on the great Pennsylvania Central Railroad, to all Eastern cities. Also, with Cleveland and Columbus Railroad to Cleveland, Buffalo, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, via New York Central and New York and Erie Railroads to New York and Boston.

Persons going East will find this route by far the most desirable, both for the advantage in point of distance, variety and beauty of the country through which the roads pass, as well as the less frequent changes of cars, and the annoyance of re-checking baggage required by other routes.

Facilities for the transportation of Freight and Live Stock by this route, are unsurpassed. Rates as low as any other route, and with equal dispatch.

The extraordinary patronage bestowed upon this long established and popular Institution affords gratifying evidence that the superior advantages and facilities it offers for the acquisition of a thorough knowledge of the various branches of a Commercial Education, are fully appreciated by a discerning and intelligent community.

THE COLLEGIATE COURSE

In this institution, will embrace the most full and complete instruction in Book-Keeping by Double Entry; thus giving a practical and thorough knowledge of the science of conducting, on correct principles, the books of individuals, partnerships and corporate bodies, in a great variety of business, including General Mercantile, Wholesale, Retail, Commission, Importing, Exporting, Foreign and Domestic Shipping, Banking, Brokerage, Exchange, Manufacturing, Mining, Railroading, Steamboating and Compound Company business; together with Commercial Correspondence, including Accounts Current, Commercial Calculations, Computations in Interest, Discounts, Insurance, Exchange, Profit and Loss, Commission, Brokerage, Averaging Accounts, in time and amounts, by simple and compound equations. The art of detecting Counterfeit Bank Notes, Practical Penmanship, Lectures on the usages of Commercial Law, with much other useful information.

Lectures on the above named subjects are interwoven, at any time, by a few days' absence, so that no one can be supplied with competent accountants, and young men will be assisted in procuring situations when desired.

Students may be admitted at the time of the Company in Chicago, by actual ships from London, Liverpool, Plymouth, Glasgow, Bristol, Hull, Aberdeen and Montrose. An Agent of the GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD superintending the removal of emigrants and baggage at Quebec free of charge.

Fare from $30 to $65 to Chicago, including cooked provisions.
